Dear KSB Friend,

Sedona Seeks Additional Feedback on Climate Action Plan

The city of Sedona is working with the community to create Sedona's first Climate Action Plan and needs additional feedback.

In June, the city solicited feedback through an initial survey. They are now looking for additional feedback through a second follow-up survey. The new online survey will be open until August 26, 2020. To take it, you can visit this page of the City of Sedona website.

The Climate Action Plan will provide a roadmap of actions the community can take to reduce emissions of harmful carbon pollution and build resilience to risks like flooding, wildfire, and extreme heat. It will reflect and bring together city and community priorities, current activities, and vision for the future. The Plan's focus areas include natural resources; buildings and energy; waste and consumption; transportation and land use; and public health, safety, and emergency services.

In light of COVID-19, the city is conducting the planning process virtually and asks that community members participate by joining an upcoming virtual open house and/or filling out an online community survey. Input from the open houses and survey will help inform the strategies and actions of the Plan.

The public is encouraged to attend a virtual open house on one of the following dates:

- Monday, September 21, 2020 from 9:30 - 10:30 a.m.
- Thursday, September 24, 2020 from 4:30 - 5:30 p.m.

Registration is required to receive the Zoom open house information.

To sign up for a virtual open house, or find more information on the Climate Action Plan, visit www.sedonaaz.gov/climate. If you have any questions, please contact McKenzie Jones, city of Sedona sustainability coordinator at mjones@sedonaaz.gov.

A draft of the Plan is estimated to be completed in late fall 2020 and will be presented to City Council for approval soon-after.

The Importance of Voting

Our democracy is built upon fundamental principles. Key among them are that citizens have the right to participate in their governance, and that citizens have the right to vote. The elected officials that we vote into office make decisions that directly impact our lives.

Keep Sedona Beautiful believes in the power of the vote.

As a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, we never endorse nor oppose candidates for office. Instead, we raise issues of importance to our members, and we encourage you to evaluate candidates' positions on those issues.

2020 is shaping up to be a landmark election year, partly due to the importance of the issues facing us and partly due to the pandemic.

If you are not registered to vote, please do so. If you're registered in Arizona, you can request to be placed on the permanent early voting list by visiting the Secretary of State's Voting by Mail web page. In Arizona, you have until October 5 to register to vote by mail in the November 3 general election. If you live in another state, check your Secretary of State's website for details.

Voting by mail is the simplest and safest way for you to vote this year.

With the unprecedented number of citizens who will be voting by mail, KSB suggests that you consider completing your ballot early. You can mail it back, or better yet, you can drop it off at any of the secured drop-off boxes.

In Yavapai County, early voting drop-off locations are:

- Camp Verde - Town Hall, 473 South Main
- Camp Verde - Yavapai-Apache Nation Community Center, 3462 Smith Ave
- Chino Valley - Town Hall, 202 N State Route 89
